Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 11-17 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Asmus (U.S. Patent No. 5,270,358).

Asmus discloses a transdermal composition comprising a matrix (see col.2, lines 32-38). The disclosed matrix is the instant matrix as claimed:

- the matrix material (e.g. polyacrylamide) of instant claim 11 (see col. 6, line 66);
- the active agent of instant claim 11 (see col. 12, lines 12-26);
- the humectant (e.g. glycerol) of instant claim 11 (see col. 9, lines 61-62);
- the moisture content of instant claim 11 (see col. 3, line 10; examples 87 and 88);
- the organic acid of instant claim 11 (see col. 14, line 52);
- the moisture management system (as disclosed in pages 23-24 of the Specification, i.e. guar gum) of instant claim 12 (see col. 6, line 68);

Art Unit: 1615

- the attachment element (adhesive) of instant claim 13 (see col.2, lines 32-38);
- the polyacrylamide of instant claim 14 (see col. 6, line 66);
- the antibacterial (antimicrobial) compounds of instant claim 15 (see col. 12, lines 12-26);
- the glycerol of instant claim 16 (see col. 9, lines 61-62); and
- the moisture content of instant claim 17 (see col. 3, line 10; examples 87 and 88).

Response to Arguments

Applicants' arguments filed 21 November 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants argue that, "[i]n Asmus, there is no teaching of providing moisture to the application site, and in fact, there is clear teaching against providing moisture to the site..." See remarks (filed 21 November 2006), page 6.

Examiner respectfully submits that the Asmus reference discloses each and every element of the instant claims vis-à-vis the broad construction of the instant claims.

As currently constructed, claim 11 does not specify the source of moisture at the dermal structure or whether there is a direct correlation between the diffusion gradient and moisture at the dermal structure. The claim language lacks the subordinating conjunction needed to establish a causal link between the diffusion gradient and moisture at the dermal surface.

Art Unit: 1615

Furthermore, the claim does not specify the extent of moisture at the dermal structure; there is no indication in the claim language that the dermal structure will be subject to increased moisture as a result of the diffusion gradient, as opposed to ambient moisture resulting from water content in the claimed composition. The Asmus reference discloses water content within the range recited in instant claim 17 (see examples 87 and 88). Thus, the article disclosed by Asmus will provide some level of moisture to the dermal structure, as instantly claimed. As such, examiner respectfully submits that the Asmus reference anticipates the instant application, as claimed.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
